

Whist

1819 Ocean Ave.
Santa Monica, CA 90401
www.viceroyssantamonica.com
310-260-7500
(All ages)

This restaurant is located in the Viceroy Santa Monica, an upscale hotel. Dessert is the highlight of the menu, especially the amazing Cherry Upside-Down Cake. The Toasted Cocoa Nib Crème Brûlée with raspberries is also a romantic sweet treat. Make a reservation for Friday, Feb. 13 or Sunday, Feb. 15 and you can get a taste of Valentine's Day without the craziness found in every restaurant on that day. The priciest dessert on this menu is called Get a Room (at a discounted rate of $199).

Saints and Sinners

10899 Venice Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90034
www.saintsnsinnersbar.com
310-842-8066
(21+)
Happy Hour: Daily 5 p.m. – 8 p.m.

The hot night to go is Thursday for some funk, soul and rock 'n' roll in their "Satanic Swingers Lounge." The highlights of their drink offerings are a shot called The Golden Shower, which sounds worse than it is, and an Alizé mix called the Blue-Eyed Devil.

Lola's

945 N. Fairfax Ave.
West Hollywood, CA 90046
www.lolasla.com
323-654-5652
(All ages)
Happy Hour: Daily 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

This bar serves tasty appetizers at a low cost – Lola's House Pizza is only $10, and an entire group of friends can split it. There are also girls-only drink specials on Sunday nights. Make sure to order one of their drinks with kinky names, such as The Big Ten Inch, or one of the many other offerings (whose names are too racy to publish).