GUAYAKI BRAND YERBA MATE ENERGY DRINKS

I've gotta say it - one, because it's so perfect, and two, because I'm hopped up on caffeine. If you love a good caffeine buzz and you're a pretty healthy consumer, the Guayaki Yerba Mate energy drinks rock!

I was never an energy drink person, but I stumbled across these one day, while buying tea. They are organic! They are pure and healthy and not loaded down with sugar. You don't get a crash after the energy wears off.

You can clean a two-story house in an hour (this includes windows and floors!). You can move mountains. You can write a novel - okay, seven chapters.

I'm currently drinking Revel Berry, which is like a nice fruity punch - with PUNCH. I've also tried Lemon Elation and Enlighten Mint.

Guayaki Yerba Mate Energy drinks. Organic hyperactivity in a can.
