In the past few years alone, our experience and tenacity have earned clients more than $100 million.

A HISTORY OF INTEGRITY

Upon his appointment to the bench in 1991, Judge William D. Maddux entrusted his respected firm to three accomplished trial lawyers, a trio whom he felt could foster and promote the high standards upon which he'd built his practice. These handpicked attorneys—John Kralovec, Steve Jambois and Allen Schwartz—have been proud to carry on Maddux's heritage as trial lawyers who specialize in the art of advocacy on behalf of plaintiff personal injury clients. "We know the quality of a truly superior firm is defined by the character of its individual attorneys," says Schwartz, "and we're dedicated to maintaining the highest possible standards."

A TRADITION OF SUCCESS

Kralovec, Jambois & Schwartz now consists of a dozen trial attorneys who are privileged to serve on behalf of victims throughout the state of Illinois. "Each case begins with a thorough understanding of a client's problems and concerns," says Kralovec. "Through patience, compassion and skill, we help clients choose the best course of action." Recent jury trial successes include a verdict of $56 million for a client who was severely injured in an automobile collision, a $12.5 million judgment against the city of Chicago in a wrongful police shooting case and a $12.5 million verdict for the death of a disabled 12-year-old girl. The firm has also earned record-setting jury verdicts in Will County ($8.3 million), Coles County ($2.38 million), McHenry County ($1.5 million), McLean County ($1.4 million) and Warren County ($1.4 million). "Favorable settlements can only be obtained," says Kralovec, "when insurance companies know they're up against skilled trial advocates with a history of success." Adds Jambois, "In the past few years alone, our experience and tenacity have earned clients more than $100 million."

THE NEXT GENERATION

Kralovec, Jambois and Schwartz—who, along with David E. Schwartz, are honored to be recognized in Super Lawyers®—have watched the firm's newest generation of trial lawyers follow in the tradition of excellence. Both Alexander Sukhman (honored in Rising Stars) and Craig Mannarino have recently been named to the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin's "Top 40 Under 40" in recognition of their outstanding trial accomplishments. In addition, attorney Ryan Yagoda obtained a $2.1 million verdict and a $2.38 million verdict in the last four months. Also, Robert Kelleher has consistently exceeded clients' expectations, and has established himself as a tenacious victims' advocate across the state. Their success, along with the successes of other trial lawyers in the firm, assures that Kralovec, Jambois & Schwartz will remain a leader in its field for years to come.
